12. Prices & surcharges

Our trip prices are subject to variable and seasonal pricing, both of which are standard practice within the travel industry. This means our trip prices may vary at any time in accordance with demand, market conditions and availability. It is likely that different passengers on the same trip may have been charged different prices. Your best option if you like the price you see is to book at that time. Once you have received a quote the price will be locked in provided you pay the required deposit prior to the quote's expiry. Any reduced pricing or discounts that may become available after you have paid your deposit will not apply. If you wish to cancel your booking to take advantage of a cheaper price, full cancellation conditions apply. The most up to date pricing is available on our website. Prices are based on currency exchange rates as of May 2018. We reserve the right to impose surcharges up to 60 days before departure due to unfavourable changes in exchange rates, increases in airfares or other transportation costs, increases in local operator costs, taxes, or if government action should require us to do so. In such instances we will be responsible for the any amount up to 2% of the retreat price and you will be responsible for the balance. If any surcharge results in an increase of more than 10% of the trip price you may cancel the booking within 14 days of notification of the surcharge and obtain a full refund. We will not surcharge any booking for travel within the validity of this brochure once paid in full. Please note that a levy of up to 2% may be applied to all purchases made by credit card.

13. Age & Health requirements

Minimum General Policy: For our retreats the minimum age is 18 at the time of travel. Prices are based on twin share and we will partner you up with another traveller of the same gender. In some cases some retreats have single rooms available.

Maximum General Policy: For the majority of our trips we have no upper age limit though we remind you that our trips can be demanding and passengers must ensure that they are suitably fit to allow full participation. We are able to provide details on mandatory health requirements; however, we are not medical experts. It is your responsibility to ensure that you obtain proper and detailed medical advice at least two months prior to travel for the latest health requirements and recommendations for your destination. Any passengers 65 or over are required to complete a Fit to Travel Letter from their GP and need to make us aware of any change in medical conditions prior to departure.

14. Small groups & combination trips

Our trips are guaranteed to depart once they have one fully paid traveller unless minimum group size specifically states otherwise. Groups size varies between 12-18 guests. If you would like to know how many people are booked on your trip. If we do not reach minimum numbers on the retreat, the retreat may be cancelled. We recommend holding off booking flights until we advise you the retreat is confirmed. If we do not reach minimum numbers by 60 days from the 1st date of the retreat, we may present you an alternative option based on reduced traveller numbers that may be an increase in the retreat price. All confirmed guests on the retreat must be happy to accept this option if the retreat is to go ahead with the new adjusted price.

15. Passport and visas

You must carry a valid passport and have obtained all of the appropriate visas, permits and certificates for the countries in which you will visit during your trip. Your passport must be valid for 6 months beyond the duration of the trip. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of the correct visas, permits and certificates for your trip; please refer to the Retreat Notes for details. We are not responsible if you are refused entry to a country because you lack the correct passport, visa or other travel documentation.

16. Travel insurance

Travel insurance is compulsory for all our travellers and should be taken out at the time of bookings. For Australian based guests travelling to retreats within the same state where they reside, travel insurance is not required. Your travel insurance must provide cover against personal accident, death, medical expenses and emergency repatriation with a recommended minimum coverage of US$200,000 for each of the categories of cover. We also strongly recommend it covers cancellation, curtailment, personal liability and loss of luggage and personal effects. You must provide proof of your travel insurance or you will not be able to join the trip without it. As of 1 Nov 2018 travel insurance no longer covers for cancellation due to flight disruption due to volcano ash. If in the unlikely event that the airport is closed temporarily we will make a decision as to whether to postpone the retreat. Historically, Garuda Airlines have been able to fly when Jetstar have not, so we strongly suggest all passengers to travel with Garuda.

17. Flexibility

You appreciate and acknowledge that the nature of this type of travel requires considerable flexibility and you should allow for alternatives. We do our best to make sure the Retreat Leader advertised as running the retreat, but in some cases the Retreat Leaders may change at short notice due to unforeseen circumstances. Common sense prevails at all times. The itinerary provided for each trip is representative of the types of activities contemplated, but it is understood that the route, schedules, itineraries, amenities and mode of transport may be subject to alteration without prior notice due to local circumstances or events.

18. Change of itinerary

While we endeavour to operate all retreats as described we reserve the right to change the trip itinerary. Please refer to our website before departure for the most recent updates to your itinerary. Before departure: If we make a major change we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before departure. The definition of a major change is deemed to be a change affecting at least one day in five of the itinerary. We reserve the right to change an itinerary or Retreat Leader up to and after departure due to local circumstances or events outside of our control. In such emergency circumstances the additional cost of any necessary itinerary alterations will be covered by you. Please note we are not responsible for any incidental expenses that may be incurred as a result of the change of itinerary such as visas, vaccinations or non-refundable flights.

19. Authority on tour

Our group trips are run by a Mindful Tribes Retreat Leader and in some cases an additional host/s. The decision of the Retreat Group Leader is final on all matters likely to affect the safety or well-being of any person participating in the trip. If you fail to comply with a decision made by a group leader, or interfere with the well-being or mobility of the group, the group leader may direct you to leave the retreat immediately, with no right of refund. We may also elect not to carry you on any future retreats booked. You must at all times comply with the laws, customs, foreign exchange and drug regulations of all countries visited, and you also agree to travel in accordance with our responsible travel guidelines.
